

sinclair should be reprimanded for using public airwaves to show a socalled documentary against Sen. Kerry. This is a campaign ad and they should pay for it in the same way other ads must be paid for, and should say who is approving the ad.